

Consciousness of Connection: Awakening From Despair to Awe

As members of a global society, we are facing unprecedented changes and challenges, many of which can feel overwhelming. At this year's Forum, we will examine connections with self, others and nature that reach our inner desires to be part of an interconnected world...perhaps transforming from an independent to a more interdependent sense of the individual, community, and society.

International Forum on Consciousness
May 20–21, 2021 • Virtual Event
